Generosity – As God richly blesses Woodcrest, we desire to be a blessing to others.

Explanation: We want to be generous toward our staff, guests, and partners by being able to look for ways to share the resources we have. Practically this means showing appreciation, valuing volunteers, and going beyond expectations to help our guests.

Integrity – As Christians we will strive to walk worthy of Christ and demonstrate honesty and love.

Explanation: We want to be above reproach when dealing with others. Practically that means that in our business dealings we will strive to be honest and forthcoming. We want our word to be trusted and valued. This includes being transparent and open in our communications and finances.

Community – Being one in Christ we want to create a space for people to belong.

Explanation: We want to develop a sense of community where staff, guests and partners feel like that they have a safe place to be themselves and where their gifts and talents can be used for God’s glory. Practically this means welcoming people and seeking to remove unnecessary barriers to belonging and serving.

Excellence – Our primary service is toward Christ and so we will strive to serve Him in a worthy manner.

Explanation: We want to serve with excellence using our time, talents, and treasures wisely. Practically this means that we will do the best that we can with the resources that we have so that staff, guests, and partners can experience the peace and presence of God when at Woodcrest.
