

2023 Team Building Programs

Woodcrest offers a variety of unique programs to help promote leadership skills in your group. Whether you are looking for a short activity to fill in your schedule or a longer dedicated time, our trained staff can create the perfect experience to accomplish your particular goals.

Basic Teambuilding

Need to fill a little bit of time? Our Basic Leadership class will provide unique games and activities that will have your group laughing and learning. These activities do not involved our low ropes but are all portable activities that can be done anywhere on camp. Estimated time: 1-2 hours

Cost: $12/person (8-14 participants); $10/person (15 or more participants)

Leadership 101

This two-hour class combines a variety of unique activities that promote unity, problem solving and character development. Our staff will work with your group to help them think through various challenges using our low ropes course. Cost: $16/person (8-14 participants); $13/person (15 or more participants)

The Works

Want to cover as many low ropes elements plus other teambuilding challenges as you can? Then this program is for you. This four hour program includes various challenge and activities plus time to really process the key characteristics of leadership and teamwork. Your group will leave feeling like they know each other better and how to work together well. Cost is $29 (8-14 participants); $25 (15 or more participants)

A la carte offerings:

Flying Squirrel
